GRIZZLY COACH DONOVAN
WELCOMES 66 GRIDDER
TO FIRST MEETING IN 1980

MISSOULA--

Sixty-six veterans and newcomers were on hand recently when University of Montana football coach Larry Donovan held the first formal team meeting of 1980.

Of that group an estimated 40 are returning lettermen.

Donovan introduced himself and members of the new staff to the squad, and set up a winter running program for the team. He outlined new changes, including a football council program which includes a player representative from each class.

Montana will be hosting several prospective athletes in the next few weeks, according to Donovan, "and we want to get the veterans involved in that process as much as possible."

Donovan told the team he plans to make the Grizzlies "the team of the 80s."
